

Internet ticketing service Ticketforevent.com operates in Turkey

July, 29, 2013. Ticketforevent, a London based B2B ticketing company has started operating in the Turkish market after launching successful operations in Russia and Ukraine. After being founded in 2011, Ticketforevent raised 3 million euros from Abele Ventures.

Ticketforevent distinguishes itself from other competitors such as Eventbrite, Amiando, Cvent with attractive pricing policies, customized service approach and advanced technical features. With the Istanbul office, the company is planning to provide direct customer support to its local customers. The company is able to integrate local payment solutions as well.

Ticketforevent partners up with organizations like Tedx, WTC, IDCEE world-wide and has sold approximately 300,000 tickets for 3000 events.
